HUTCHISON, Kan., Aug. 9.-The plan which the People's Party state central committee has outlined for its cam paign differs as materially from the one it conducted two years ago as from the campaign methods of the old parties. merit of being unique and the work undertaken requires both a thorough knowledge of the state and a prodigious amount of labor. John Breidenthal, chairman of the state central committee from the Seventh district, met here with the chairman of the various county central com-mittees and explained the details of the campaign. As outlined and approved, it leaves the Democrats to take care of themselves. Meetings similar to the one held here have been called in each of the congressional districts and after these have been held and a complete poll of the state taken, the state central committee will hold its meetings

In order to interest the Alliance in the campaign, a meeting will be held in Topeka tomorrow, at which representative mediately after leaving the works he tives of the Alliance who are known to be loyal Third Party men will study the plan outlined by the central committee of calling the various county Alliances after the fashion of two years ago.

Pelling the Whole State, "It will be necessary to show them." explained Chairman Breidenthal, "that the success of the movement depends upon the showing which Kansas makes and their failure to carry the state means the disintegration of the whole movement. The Alliance will be urged to assist in preparing the poll of the state and for this purpose blanks will be fur-nished by the state central committee. This poll is taken for the twofold pur-pose of arriving at the positive strength of the mevement and preventing a possible colonization of the state. The name, age, occupation, postoffice address, length of residence in township or ward, nativity, r ace and last previous residence will be given and under the head of party affiliation the voter will be residence will be given and under the head of party affiliation the voter will be classed as People's Party, Democrat, Republican or doubtful.
